

HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

They had an unexpected visitor at the L. Van Stelle Realtor office, 2304 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., Monday noon.

Stan Baker, vice-president of the realty company, reported that Al Swanson, salesman, suddenly shouted "Look out, here it comes!" and started running. Then a car crashed into the office and knocked a desk across the room, hitting Swanson on the knee.

Baker, who had been standing near Swanson, explained that two cars collided in the rain at the intersection of W. Point Loma and Sunset Cliffs Blvds. One car, driven by a woman, jumped the curb, hurtled across the lawn and over the flower box through the front of the building.

The crash made a shambles of the office, Baker said, estimating the damage at about $1000.

He said the woman driver was cited by police; Swanson's knee was slightly injured but he grabbed a camera and shot the pictures shown at the right.

These song writers really are getting hard up for words to describe the physical attractions of youths and maidens in the grip of the purple passion.

Turn on the radio and you get things like this:

"Mr. Fire Eyes."

"Lips of Wine."

"Honeycomb."

Haw!

My radio is acting up again and I don't know whether to blame the sputtering Sputniks or "private" operators with 10-ton superduper monstrosities.

Now that the mad Russians have tossed a dog into space and are threatening to shoot the moon, we underdog Americans are in the position of wondering What Next?

One school of thought is that the cold calculating creep in the Kremlin has launched a rocket to hit the moon today, Nov. 7, the 40th anniversary of the Russian Revolution.

Well, I ain't holding my breath but things ARE moving pretty fast, huh?

If the U.S. gets ready to fire a rocket at the moon, I'm prepared to submit a list of prospective passengers.

People We Can Do Without. Cast your glances over the American scene and consider your candidates . . . Yeah, I know some would object that a miscreant should not go thundering down the corridors of time—that only somebody pure in heart should be the first to land on the moon.

Nuts! Judas Iscariot made a name for himself, but we don't build churches in his honor.

The Russians figure that dogs and peasants and politicians are expendable; but I don't see why we should risk a good man on a rocket to the moon.

Let's send a woman, you say?

Hey, now!

(I'm just kidding, of course . . . Some of my best friends are women.)

Schools Prepare For Education Week Nov. 10-16

San Diego City Schools are making preparations to welcome 80,000 visitors during the 37th annual observance of American Education Week, Nov. 10-16, according to Dr. Ralph Dillard, superintendent.

This year, emphasis will be placed on evening open-house programs in each of the city's 100 day schools, although parents and friends are welcome at any time throughout the school day. Because of the holiday, Nov. 11, most activities will be scheduled during the four-day period from Tuesday through Friday.

A major feature of the week's program will be the dedication of the Edward L. Hardy Elementary School, at 5420 Montezuma Road in the State College area. The school is named in honor of Dr. Edward L. Hardy, second president of San Diego State College from 1911-1935, and former member of the Board of Education. The dedication program will be held Thursday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m., and will be preceded by open house at the school from 6:30-7:30 p.m.

United Fund Residential Drive Gets Off To Good Start In Area

United Fund Geographic (house-to-house) campaigners got off to a good start in the Ocean Beach-Point Loma area Monday morning as they launched the one big drive for one big gift.

In the first day of the residential drive, campaigners here reported $3,176 or 13.3 percent of the $23,836 quota.

The geographic drive, which includes the campaign of business firms where four or less persons are employed, was begun immediately following meetings in the zone chairmen's homes that were concluded with a two-station telecast signaling the kickoff.

PTA Cooperates With United Fund

The Ninth District Executive Board of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers has voted to endorse in principle San Diego County's effort for one drive in a United Fund Campaign.

In a policy statement to United Fund Headquarters, Mrs. Lloyd W. Lewis, president of the Ninth District PTA, said: "A Parent-Teacher association shall not deny individual members the opportunity to participate in other organizations and to make their own decisions as to what amount of time, money and leadership they can afford to contribute.

"We will gladly cooperate with the United Fund of San Diego County" within the framework of this policy," she said.

In separate statements, Mrs. Gene Shapley and Mrs. Gilbert Rohlf, both members of the PTA Executive Board, pointed out that as individuals they themselves are participating actively in the United Fund campaign.

"We are happy to support San Diego's new givers' organization," they agreed in urging others to do likewise.

Christmas Club Checks Total $188,600 Here

Santa's going to need more reindeer plus a trailer-sled to tote his gifts this year if Bank of America's 1957 Christmas Club statewide totals are any indication of the shopping spree to come.

In Ocean Beach and Point Loma, Branch Managers Rollin Reed and Jay Thomson said checks totaling $188,600 will be mailed Nov. 15 to 1800 local Christmas Club savers.

With $62,000,000 in 516,000 accounts throughout the state, never have so many Californians saved so much toward a merry, bill-free Christmas, they said.

The statewide totals show an increase of $8,700,000 and 94,000 more accounts than last year and are the highest since Bank of America started its Christmas savings program almost a quarter century ago.

The Christmas Club, designed to help depositors put aside funds for the holidays, also is used by some as a source of ready cash for winter vacations or end-of-year expenses such as insurance and tax payments, Reed and Thomson added.

Sensational Run Of Yellowtail Still Under Way

With the season's catch already over the 200,000 mark, approximately 43 times as high as the best previous season's take on record, deep sea anglers continued to make good catches of yellowtail this week as the sensational run at the Coronado Islands and Rock Pile continued with no signs of abatement.

Saturday's catch, compiled by comparatively few anglers, totaled 800 yellowtails, 419 bonito, and five fine white sea bass ranging as heavy as 52 pounds.

Largest white was taken by W. E. Wagner, Los Angeles, and largest yellow a 24-11 bagged by D. W. Thompson, San Bernardino.

J. W. Menderes, Ocean Beach, limited out with 10 yellowtails, one of which wore a Fish and Game Department tag.

Afternoon trips to the Point Loma kelp beds for bass and barracuda were suspended for the season last Sunday but will be replaced by bottom fishing trips at 8 a.m. for the remainder of the winter season.

SILVER GATE PTA

Silver Gate Parent-Teacher Association is looking forward to the visit of Dr. Richmond Barbour, director of guidance for S. D. City Schools, at the November meeting Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 9:30 a.m. in All Souls Parish Hall.

Dr. Barbour will speak on "What Makes a Happy Home."

Ocean Beach PTA

In observance of American Education Week, the Ocean Beach PTA will hold a short meeting on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Miss Vesta Petersen, Principal, will present "A Message to the Parents."

Allen Newman of Ocean Beach Baptist Church will give the invocation.

Following the meeting Open House will be observed with informal visiting with the teachers in their classrooms.

Parents are urged to attend.

Peninsula Lions

It will be Armed Forces Night at the Peninsula Lions Club meeting tonight in Madeline's Dining Room.

Six recruits from NTC and MCRD will be guests, and Comdr. Jacobs, USN, will speak on "Court-martial Proceedings." Also present will be Coach Trommeter of the undefeated MCRD football team.

William Casper, principal guest speaker, will describe his recent tour through Russia and satellite countries. Chuck Edwards is program chairman and President Frank Allen will preside.

FORMER PRESIDENT—Harry Truman visited Cabrillo National Monument on Point Loma Monday and enjoyed the view, one of the three most scenic in the world. Photo was made by Don Robinson, superintendent.

Cal Western University Players To Present 'The Goose Hangs High'

As their opening play of the season the California Western University Players will present "The Goose Hangs High" by Lewis Beach. This will be given in the Little Theatre at Salomon Hall on the evenings of November 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 at 8:30 p.m.

The theme of this sparkling modern comedy is the universal one of self-sacrificing parents and careless youth. Ever since its first production in New York this play has been extremely popular and admirably suited to colleges and community theatres.

It has its moments of pathos mingled with hearty mirth-provoking situations, and a tender love interest that cannot fail to strike responsive chords in the hearts of the audience.

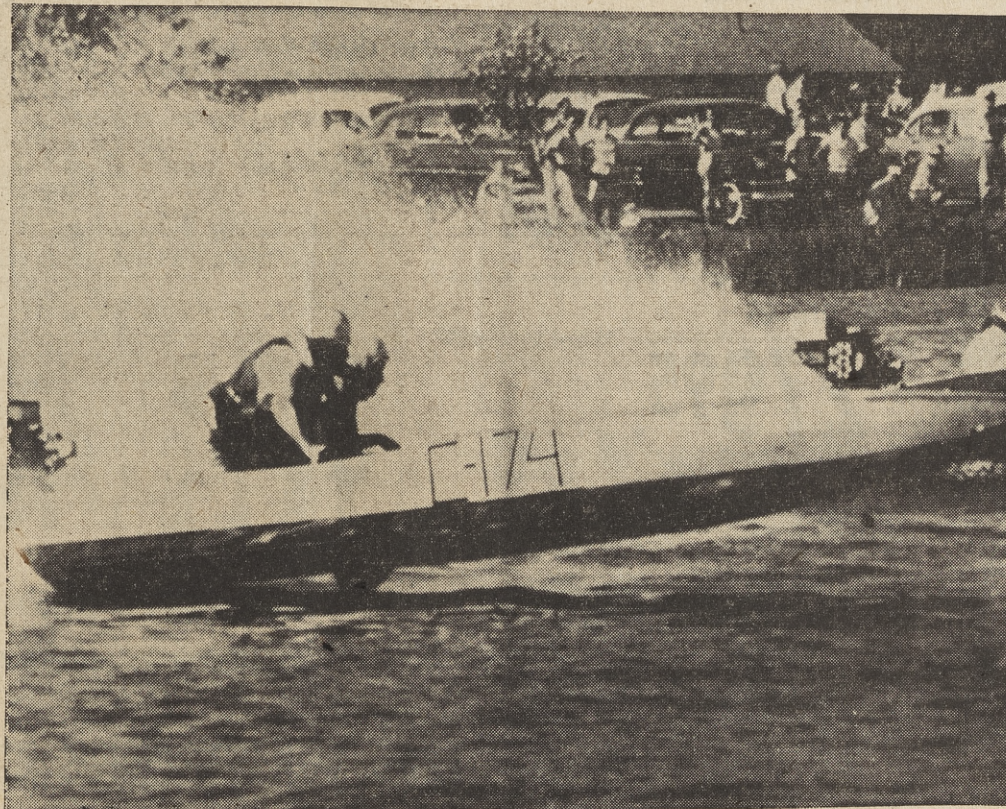

In this, their eleventh production since the Players were organized in 1955, for the first

SANE Members Meet Tonight

A general meeting of the members of SANE Inc., the Society to Abolish Nuclear Explosions, will be held at 8 p.m. today (Thursday) at 3631 Rosecroft Lane, Point Loma. A discussion on the dangers of radioactive fallout will follow showing of movies of the results of nuclear tests, according to the society's president, Dr. Allen D. Rosenblatt.

All those interested are invited.

SANE, a non-profit corporation formed in San Diego last spring "to give voice and information to those concerned with the menace of human damage and destruction emanating from nuclear explosions throughout the world," now has members in 40 states and 24 foreign countries, Dr. Rosenblatt announced. An essential part of the society's program is the distribution of lapel buttons bearing the word "SANE".

SPEED—Bob Jackson, local outboard jockey, is passing another boat on the turn at a Bakersfield race. Jackson and other top drivers will compete in the championship races this Sunday noon, Nov. 10 in the S. D. Marine Stadium (the local flood control channel). There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

Clyde Wood Elected Chamber President

Clyde Wood, publisher of the Peninsula News, was elected president of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce for 1958 at a meeting of the new board of directors Tuesday in King's cafe.

Other officers elected were Russell Wilson of Blue Pacific Nursery, vice-president; Kenneth Brown, Bank of America, treasurer, and John Dowell, Art's Store for Men, secretary.

New officers and directors will be installed at a dinner meeting early in January.

Directors voted to send a letter to the City Council recommending the Mission Bay Park Commission be made autonomous, like the Harbor Commission. This would require approval by the voters of a proposed charter amendment.

Action of the directors followed a talk by Darryl Johnson, member of the Mission Bay

Commission, at a recent membership meeting of the Chamber.

John Pierce, Chamber secretary for six years, submitted his resignation, effective Dec. 31, on advice of his physician. This was accepted with regrets by the board.

Directors decided to enter a float in the North Park Toyland Parade to be held Sunday, Dec. 8. Ruth Faber is chairman of the float decoration committee. Preceding the float in the parade will be a convertible carrying Janis Thompson, Miss Ocean Beach, along with Howard Pentoney, 1957 Chamber president, and Secretary Pierce.

PLHS Football Team Will Play

Mission Bay High At L. J. Friday

Point Loma High School's football team, which lost a tough one to Hoover last Thursday night, will play Mission Bay High Friday at 3 p.m. on the La Jolla High field.

Hoover's margin over the locals was 18-13 and it was a close game all the way on the wet East San Diego gridiron.

Joe Langlais, 140-pound guard, who has given a spirited performance all season, was named "lineman of the week" for his play on offense against Hoover.

With the tackle corps depleted by flu and injuries, Doug Collins came up from the JV and did an outstanding job at tackle.

Bradford plunged for four yards and a Point Loma touchdown in the first half and Roger Soares kicked the extra point. Soares tossed a short pass to end John Rebelo for the other score in the third period.

Hoover, trailing 13-12 late in the fourth quarter, staged a winning drive culminated when Sam Sharmittaro went over from one yard out.

This was another game that could have gone either way and Coach Bennie Edens felt the boys had done well.

Community Fine Arts Program Proves Popular With Residents

California Western University's Community Program of Fine Arts, which was launched Oct. 21, has been well received by Point Loma and Ocean Beach residents, Dr. William C. Rust, president, reported.

"Our Community Program, which is an activity of the University School of Fine Arts, has one underlying premise," Rust said. "To make available to the children and adults of our area an opportunity to actively participate in the fine arts under leadership of the finest calibre. The first response has been very gratifying."

Classes for children of 4th through 12th grade in music, art, drama and modern dance have been scheduled. They meet afternoons and Saturdays. The adult portion of the Community Program embraces music, art and drama. These classes meet afternoons, evenings and Saturdays. All courses are being taught at the Point Loma campus, 3902 Lomaland Dr.

Seven members of the regular faculty plus six outside teachers, experts in the various fields, teach a total of 20 classes under the Community program of Fine Arts.

These include Dr. Gabriel Fenyes, Dr. Uriel Ittenberg and Dr. Walter Teutsch of the California Western staff in the Music Section. Supplementing them are Dr. Garry White, Margaret Hamilton, and Charlotte Bond Aldrich. Courses by these teachers include children's orchestra, voice, opera workshop, music appreciation and children's group classes in winds, strings and piano.

In the Art Section, Howard Passel of the University is joined by Belle Baranceanu in the children's art courses with J. Milford Ellison teaching the adult painting classes.

Chez Haehl and Carl Glick, both of the faculty, teach children's drama and adult group, the University Players, respectively.

Jean Lareau of the Faculty teaches children's modern dance and children's square and folk dance.

President Rust said that parents interested in enrolling their children are welcome to visit or phone the California Western University Administration building on the Point Loma campus for further details. Registrations for the current semester will close very shortly, he said.

Earth Satellite Display Loaned To S. D. Library

The major aspects of the International Geophysical Year and of the U. S. Navy's earth satellite program are featured in the exhibit at the San Diego Public Library, 8th Ave. and E St.

Panels and pictures from the National Academy of Sciences in Washington, D. C., show the fields of study for the IGY. They concern the polar regions, the figure and crust of the earth, heat and water budget of the earth and the upper atmosphere. They were obtained for the Library through the efforts of Dr. Roger Revelle, director of the Scripps Institution of Oceanography and a member of the National IGY committee.

The earth satellite display is composed of models and pictures loaned by the U. S. Navy Electronics Laboratory on Point Loma. They include a globe of the world around which the satellite is adjusted to follow the orbit currently being used by Sputnik; scale models of the rocket which will be used to launch the U. S. satellite; and one of the eight antennas used at each of 10 Minitrack stations.

The display, in the lobby and on the second floor, will remain until the middle of November.

Mandalay Gives Us a Tempting Entree

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

FOR a change, give a party with an oriental slant. Good fun and good food. This recipe, developed by a friend who once worked with the Red Cross in Korea and Japan, combines shrimp, bean sprouts, bamboo shoots and mushrooms into a tempting filling for the Mandalayan pie. You will like it.

MANDALAYAN PIE (6 servings)

Shrimp filling: 4 strips bacon, diced; 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon soy sauce, 1 1/2 cups water, 1 cup chopped shrimp, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 medium-sized onion, sliced; 1 cup bamboo shoots, drained; 1 cup bean sprouts, drained, and one 4-oz. can mushroom pieces, drained.

Pastry: 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1/2 cup enriched cornmeal, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 5 to 7 tablespoons cold water.

For the filling, pan-fry diced bacon until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper. Pour excess fat from pan, reserving 3 tablespoons in medium pan; add cornstarch, sugar, salt, soy sauce and water. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thickened.

Combine thickened sauce with drained, diced bacon; shrimp, celery, sliced onion, bamboo shoots, bean sprouts and mushrooms. Set aside. Heat oven to hot (425 degrees F.). For the pastry, sift together flour, cornmeal and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add water by tablespoons, mixing with a fork until pastry will just hold together. On a floured board or canvas, roll out one-half of pastry slightly larger than the 9-inch pie plate. Line pie plate with pastry and fill with shrimp mixture. Roll out remaining pastry for top crust. In center of top crust, cut lines to resemble an oriental symbol. (Opening provides necessary steam vent.) Turn edge of top crust over bottom crust and seal by pressing with lines of fork. Brush top lightly with milk. Bake in preheated oven (425 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Serve.

It's worth remembering that setting up the carburetor idling adjustment to prevent stalling is not always the correct remedy, points out the National Automobile Club. If this adjustment is to compensate for another adjustment, such as that of the engine's electrical system, the net result is usually more gas consumption instead of taking the step that would result in less gas consumption.

HEALTH FOR ALL

For all its beauty, October heralded the triumphal march of the common cold. For the next six months in almost any group of six people, there will be at least one person who's coming down with a cold, one who has a cold and one who's just getting over one. What can we do to break this pattern which makes late fall and winter the season of sniffles?

Let's not waste time blaming the weather. Let's adjust to it, and that means dressing for it.

This is a good time to check with your family doctor and get his advice on protecting the family from illness in the months ahead. This year especially because of possible epidemics of Asian flu, make a special effort to be sure that every member of the family is in the best possible physical condition. See that they get enough sleep, rest and outdoor recreation.

Step up the protective foods—milk, eggs, meat, vegetables—in the meals you serve. If, in spite of all precautions, a cold should strike, give the patient a day of rest, preferably in bed. If there is fever call the doctor.

(This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by the San Diego County Tuberculosis and Health Association.)

Point Loma High
